3/15/11

On 3/15/13, at 4:35 PM, plainclothes officers observed a male, who the officers knew was wanted for investigation in reference to a previous home invasion. The offender was parked in a green mini-van, in the driveway of the 400 block of Sanger Street. The officer approached the vehicle, identified himself and ordered the offender to turn the vehicle off. The offender did not comply. The officer then reached through the driver window of the van and attempted to turn the vehicle off. In response, the offender accelerated the vehicle dragging the officer several feet. The officer then discharged his weapon striking the center driver side window of the van and missing the offender. The officer was able to free himself and the offender drove off at a high rate of speed. The offender crashed his vehicle into a tree at the end of the driveway. The offender exited the vehicle and was apprehended after a short foot pursuit and was transported to Albert Einstein Hospital for treatment for minor injuries. No weapon was recovered.
