PS#11-19

2/26/11

On 2/26/11, at 5:11 A.M., in the 1100 block of E. Tioga Street, an off duty police detective was inside his personal vehicle and observed a male, along with several of his family members, approach and open the driver's door of the detective's vehicle. The offender and the detective engaged in a physical altercation. The detective exited his vehicle, drew his weapon and identified himself as a police officer. The offender ran east on Tioga Street with the detective in pursuit. The offender turned towards the detective who then discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender was later apprehended. There was no weapon recovered at the scene.
