PS#14-02

1/13/14

On Monday, 1/13/14, at approximately 4:12 P.M., an on-duty police detective in civilian attire, along with an agent from the Attorney General's Office, were in an unmarked police vehicle traveling east in the 3100 block of Morris Street, when they observed a male walking west on Morris Street with the barrel of a rifle protruding from his jacket. The police detective exited the unmarked police vehicle and identified himself to the offender. The offender fled north on Corlies Street. At one point, the offender stopped and pointed a rifle at the detective. In response, the detective discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender then discarded the rifle, but continued to flee. The offender was temporarily lost in the area. Approximately forty-minutes later, the offender was apprehended in the 1400 block of South 26th Street.

One "BB" gun rifle was recovered at the scene.

There were no reported injuries as a result of this firearm discharge.
