3/24/12

On 3/24/12, at approximately 1:28 AM, uniformed officers were surveying the area for the offenders involved in a point of gun robbery at a bar in the 7100 block of Elmwood Avenue. The officer observed a male walking eastbound on Elmwood Avenue. The officer attempted to stop the male for investigation based on the description of the robbery. The offender fled eastbound on Elmwood Avenue into a schoolyard. The officer exited his radio patrol car (RPC) and followed the offender up the steps into the schoolyard, where he observed the offender with an object in his hand. The officer ordered the offender to drop the object, and when the offender did not comply, the officer discharged his 9mm pistol missing the offender.. The offender dropped a cellular telephone from his hand and surrendered without further incident. No weapon was recovered.
