PS#12-32

4/27/12

On 4/27/12, at approximately 9:30 P.M., officers were on-duty and in uniform assigned to a marked vehicle when they stopped a vehicle for traffic violations on the 2100 block of N. 31st Street. The operator exited the vehicle and fled through a vacant lot. One officer pursued the offender on foot and observed him produce what appeared to be a firearm. The officer discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender was admitted to Temple University Hospital. No firearm was located, however, a large plastic bag containing narcotics was recovered from the area where the offender was apprehended.
