04/27/12

On 4/27/12, at approximately 8:00 P.M., officers attempted to stop a male for investigation at Hunting Park and Germantown Avenues. The male fled on foot through a vacant lot towards the 4000 block of Nice Street and produced a gun from his pocket. The officer chased the offender through the lot, where the officer was suddenly charged upon by a large dog. The officer discharged his firearm, killing the animal. The offender discarded his firearm and was arrested without further incident. The firearm, a 9mm semi automatic pistol, loaded with nine rounds, was recovered.
