On November 13, 2018, at approximately 10:45 PM, 19th District Police Officers responded to a radio call for "Several gunshots fired at 7500 Brookhaven Road." Upon arrival, they observed a male, walking on Brookhaven Road coming from the direction of the reported gunshots. The Officers exited their vehicle and approached the male, who fled on foot in the driveway, armed with a firearm in his right hand. The officers pursued the male on foot and observed him in a crouched position, near the bushes of a residence on the block. The male then emerged from the bushes and fled on foot, down the rear driveway. While fleeing, the male turned towards an officer, blading his body. Due to the male's actions, the officer was unable to observe the male's hands. Believing the male was still armed, the officer discharged one round, missing the male, who continued running down the driveway, turning his body in a way that did not allow officers to see his hand. The officer discharged another round. The male was not struck. The officer was able to apprehend the male at the opposite end of the driveway, heading back onto Brookhaven Road, near Haverford Avenue. An officer located the male's firearm near the bushes he had initially crouched behind.

There were no reported injuries in connection with this incident.
