8/6/09

On 8/6/09, at approximately 8:23 P.M., uniformed officers patrolling the 1200 block of Harold Street observed a male with an object bulging from under his shirt near his waistband. The officers exited their patrol vehicle to investigate the offender and the offender fled on foot. One of the officers chased the offender to an alley in the 1200 block of Hazzard Street, where the offender discharged one round at the officer. The officer returned fire at the offender, who dropped his .40 caliber semi-automatic pistol, and fled east through the alley eluding apprehension. There was no indication that the male was injured, and area hospitals were checked with negative results. A .40 caliber weapon, loaded with eight live rounds, was recovered at the scene.
