PS# 09-62

9/16/09

On 9/16/09, at approximately 10:41 P.M., uniformed officers on patrol observed the offender, armed with a 9MM semi-automatic pistol, robbing an individual in the 2900 block of N. 24th Street. Seeing the officers, the offender fled on foot. One of the officers chased the offender to the 2900 block of N. Ringgold Street, where the offender pointed his firearm at the officer. The officer discharged his firearm at the offender and the male ran north through the alley. The offender was apprehended several hours later hiding in the rear yard in the 2900 block of N. Taylor Street. Items stolen from the robbery victim were recovered from the offender. The offender was treated at Albert Einstein Medical Center for a possible graze wound. The offender's 9MM semi-automatic weapon, loaded with eleven live rounds, was recovered at the scene.
