12/11/10

On 12/11/10, at 12:15 A.M., a uniformed officer was at 21st Street and Point Breeze Avenue when he heard several gunshots near 21st and Wharton Streets. The officer rode his bicycle to the 1200 block of S. 21st Street and observed three males fighting on the ground. The officer saw one of the males back away and reach toward his waistband. The officer discharged his weapon at this offender. This offender fled north on 21st Street and has not been located. It was determined that one of the other offenders discharged a .45 caliber pistol during the fight. This offender was arrested. The offender's .45 caliber weapon, loaded with five live rounds, was recovered at the scene.
