PS #09-85

11/21/09

On 11/21/09, at approximately 10:58 P.M., an off-duty officer was inside his residence in the 2600 block of Elkhart Street when an altercation involving his house guests and other individuals occurred outside. The off-duty officer exited his property to intervene and was struck in the mouth by one of the individuals. The officer identified himself as a police officer and one of the males in the group advanced towards the officer. The officer drew his privately owned firearm and discharged one round, striking the offender. The offender was pronounced at the hospital. The off-duty officer had an odor of alcohol on his breath, and was taken to Police Headquarters where a breathalyzer test was administered.
