12/23/08

On 12-23-08, at approximately 11:14 A.M., a uniformed officer was surveying the area of 2400 N. 11th Street when he observed a male fitting the description of a male wanted for an attempted burglary. The offender was walking toward the rear parking lot at 2400 N. 11th Street. As the officer pulled into the parking lot and exited his vehicle, the male fled and jumped into a blue GMC van. The officer grabbed onto the passenger door handle of the vehicle, but was knocked to the ground as the vehicle reversed. As the officer saw the vehicle coming toward him, he discharged his weapon at the vehicle. The vehicle continued north through the driveway with the officer in foot pursuit and the officer discharged his weapon again at the vehicle. The vehicle continued north on Warnock Street and then west on Huntingdon Street. The vehicle was recovered, unoccupied, at 11th and Huntington Streets. The officer identified the offender from a photo-spread and the offender was arrested. No weapons were recovered from the scene.
