2/22/07

On 2/22/07, at approximately 9:18 P.M., plainclothes officers in an unmarked vehicle were conducting surveillance in the area of Wayne Avenue and Apsley Street. While conducting the surveillance an unknown male approached the vehicle, made a comment to the officers, and discharged a weapon at the vehicle. One of the officers from inside the vehicle discharged his weapon at the unknown male. The male fled and eluded apprehension.

A .357 caliber revolver containing one fired cartridge casing and six live rounds was recovered in the rear of the 100 block of Apsley Street.

The offender was identified and arrested several days later.
