1/1/07

On 1/1/07, at approximately 12:13 A.M., a uniformed officer was traveling south in the 2400 block of N. 10th Street when he heard gunshots in the rear of the public housing complex. The officer exited his patrol vehicle and observed two males in the rear courtyard next to a parked Mercury Grand Marquis. One of the males was observed placing an item into his waistband and both males began to flee.

One male fled into an unknown house on the block. The second male ran west through the courtyard. The officer pursued the second male on foot. During the foot pursuit of this offender, he turned and extended his arm toward the officer. The officer discharged his weapon at the offender. The offender continued to flee and was apprehended in the 2400 block of N. 11th Street.

No weapon was recovered from the offender or the area of the pursuit. Two .40 caliber fired cartridge casings were recovered next to the Mercury Grand Marquis and a box of .40 caliber ammunition was recovered in the courtyard. Additionally, three 12-gauge shot shells were recovered from the offender's right pants pocket and two unloaded 12-gauge shotguns were recovered from the trunk of the Grand Marquis.
