2/29/12

On 2/29/12, at approximately 10:09 PM, police observed two males walking eastbound on Norris Street. The officers attempted to conduct a pedestrian stop of both males in reference to a Police Radio call for gunshots in the area. Both offenders fled on foot, eastbound on Norris Street, pursued by the officers. Officers observed one of the offenders draw a firearm from his waistband. Police officers chased this offender to the rear driveway of the 2000 block of N. Lambert Street, where the offender turned and pointed the weapon at the officers. Two officers drew their weapons and discharged, striking the offender. The offender was transported to Temple Hospital. A .22 caliber handgun, loaded with six rounds, was recovered from the offender at the scene.
