8/20/13

On Tuesday, 8/20/13, at approximately 7:39 P.M., uniformed officers, in a marked police vehicle, attempted to stop a Buick LaSabre, occupied by two males, near Carlisle and Huntingdon Streets for disregarding a stop sign. The vehicle initially stopped, but fled as the officers exited their vehicle. The officers followed the Buick to the 2200 block of Glenwood Avenue, where the vehicle struck a minivan. The Buick came to rest on the north sidewalk in the 2200 block of Glenwood Avenue. The operator of the Buick exited the vehicle, fled west on Glenwood Avenue, and was apprehended by police, uninjured, after a short pursuit.

Simultaneously, one officer approached the passenger side of the Buick, drew his weapon, and ordered the passenger to show his hands. The offender opened the passenger door and pointed a black semi-automatic weapon at the officer. The officer discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender was transported to Temple Hospital where he was pronounced.

Recovered from the front passenger seat of the Buick was a 9MM semi-automatic weapon, loaded with (9) nine live rounds, including (1) one in the chamber. Also recovered in the Buick on the driver's floor, was a .357 caliber revolver, loaded with (6) six live rounds.
