PS #10-89

12/24/10

On 12/24/10, at 3:23 A.M., a uniformed officer responded to a Police Radio assignment, "Person with gun/gunshots", in the 2000 block of N. Howard Street. The officer observed the offender, who fit the flash information, riding a bicycle and attempted to stop him in the 1900 block of N. Howard Street. The offender dismounted the bicycle and fled on foot to the 1900 block of N. Front Street, where he discharged his firearm at the officer. The officer discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender was apprehended. A .357 revolver, containing four live rounds and two fired cartridge casings, was recovered at the scene.
