4/25/11

On 4/25/11, at 3:57 PM, an off duty officer in civilian attire was helping his sister move furniture in the area of the 4600 block of Worth Street when he observed a male exit a house armed with a handgun. The offender entered another house on the block and emerged seconds later still armed with the gun. The officer drew his service pistol and identified himself as a police officer. The offender pointed his weapon at the officer who then discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender was taken to Aria-Torresdale Hospital by a neighbor and treated for his injuries. The offender's 9MM handgun loaded with seventeen live rounds was recovered.
