10/4/12

On 10/4/12, at approximately 11:00 P.M., uniform officers observed a green Mercury Grand Marquis with a New Jersey temporary license, traveling east on Butler Street. As the vehicle turned onto Germantown Avenue, the officers observed a hole in the rear windshield. The officers drove behind the vehicle and signaled for the operator to stop by using their emergency lights. The operator continued driving northbound on Germantown Avenue. At Pike Street, a male exited from the passenger side of the vehicle with a handgun in his hand. The offender ran east on Pike Street, with the officers in pursuit. The officers exited their police car and the offender pointed his handgun in their direction. The officers discharged their guns striking the offender. The offender fell to the ground and dropped his handgun. He was transported to Temple University Hospital by police. The offender's weapon, a 9MM semi-automatic pistol, loaded with six 9mm rounds, was recovered at the scene.
